ARTICLE I: NAME, PURPOSES AND FUNCTIONS

Section 1: NAME

- A. The name of this association shall be the Mississippi Nurses' Association, hereinafter referred to as MNA.
- B. MNA shall be a constituent member as a state association of the American Nurses Association, hereinafter referred to as ANA, in accordance with ANA Bylaws.
- C. MNA shall remain affiliated with the ANA until such time as two-thirds of the entire MNA membership votes to disaffiliate from the ANA. "MNA membership," for these purposes, is defined as individual members of the MNA who have ANA rights and privileges of membership as a result of their MNA membership. The vote may occur by mail or electronic ballot, with appropriate notice and procedures to protect the integrity and validity of the vote.

Section 2: PURPOSES

- A. The purposes of MNA shall be to:
 - 1. work for improvement of health standards, and the availability of health care services for all people;
 - 2. foster high standards of nursing;
 - 3. stimulate and promote the professional development of nurses; and
 - 4. promote and protect the professional environment of nurses.
- B. These purposes shall be unrestricted by consideration of age, color, creed, disability, gender, health status, lifestyle, nationality, race, religion, or sexual orientation.

Section 3: FUNCTIONS

The functions of MNA shall be to:

- A. Promote, through appropriate means, standards of nursing practice, nursing education, and nursing services as defined by ANA.
- B. Ensure adherence to the Code of Ethical Conduct for practitioners established by ANA.
- C. Promote legislation and speak for nurses in regard to legislative action.
- D. Survey periodically the nurse resources of the state.
- E. Support study, evaluation, and research in nursing.
- F. Promote and protect the professional environment of nurses.
- G. Interpret and promote professional counseling service to individuals and groups of nurses, and to their employers.
- H. Provide leadership in nursing in the State.
- I. Provide for representation in ANA Membership Assembly.
- J. Promote relationships with the Mississippi Association of Student Nurses, hereinafter referred to as MASN.
- K. Recruit active students for nursing.
- L. Represent nurses and serve as their state spokesman with allied professional, community, governmental groups and with the public.
- M. Maintain communication with members through official publications.
- N. Provide for the continuing professional development of practitioners of nursing.

As approved by HOD on Wednesday, October 23, 2024

- O. Provide services to constituent associations, including District Nurses' Associations, hereinafter referred to as DNAs, and Organizational Affiliates, hereinafter referred to as OAs.
- P. Assume an active role as consumer advocate.

ARTICLE II: MEMBERSHIP

Section 1: COMPOSITION

MNA shall be composed of registered nurses (RNs) in five categories of membership:

- A. MNA/ANA/DNA members who hold memberships in MNA, ANA, and a DNA.
- B. MNA/ANA members who reside in areas where there is no DNA.
- C. MNA/DNA members who request membership limited to MNA and a DNA.
- D. MNA only members who request membership limited to MNA and reside in areas where there is no DNA.
- E. OA members who are RN members only of an Organizational Affiliate.
- F. RNs working or living in Mississippi may join at the state level only, at any time and for such periods of time that in-state only membership is sanctioned by a written agreement with the ANA.

Section 2: QUALIFICATIONS

- A. A member is one:
 - 1. who has been granted a license to practice as a registered nurse in at least one state, territory, possession or District of Columbia of the U.S., and who does not have a license under suspension or revocation in any state, or is otherwise entitled by law to practice; and,
 - 2. whose application for membership in MNA has been accepted in accordance with association policy;
 - 3. whose dues are not delinquent;
 - 4. whose membership is not under revocation for violation of Code of Ethics for Nurses, or any provision of ANA or MNA Bylaws.
- B. Renewal of membership shall be contingent upon having been granted RN licensure.
- C. Membership shall be unrestricted in accordance with ANA bylaws.
- D. MNA may, in accordance with its policies and procedures, include in its membership the nurse in recovery who has surrendered a license to practice or a nurse who has retired and/or no longer chooses to practice, but whose license was in good standing with his/her licensing board at the time the nurse made the decision not to maintain an active license.

Section 3: MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- A. MNA/ANA/DNA and MNA/ANA members shall have membership privileges as follows:
 - 1. Participating in the election of MNA and ANA delegates;
 - 2. Voting for members of MNA structural units with which they affiliate in accordance with Board procedures and policies;
 - 3. Serving as MNA or ANA delegate or in any MNA or ANA elected or appointed position if so qualified and selected;

As approved by HOD on Wednesday, October 23, 2024

4. Attending conventions and other unrestricted activities of MNA and ANA;
 5. Receiving regular MNA and ANA publications;
 6. Having representation through ANA in the International Council of Nurses.
- B. MNA/DNA and MNA only members shall have membership privileges as herein listed in Section 3A except voting for and serving as ANA or MNA delegates, or having any ANA privileges.
- C. OA members shall have membership privileges as sited in these Bylaws, Article IX, Section 3.
- D. MNA shall, as appropriate for the membership category:
1. Apprise its members of their right to:
 - a. receive a membership card and official publications;
 - b. be a candidate for ANA elective and appointive positions in accordance with ANA bylaws;
 - c. participate in the election of MNA delegates to the ANA Membership Assembly in accordance with ANA bylaws ;

 - f. run for, be elected to, and serve as a voting member in the MNA House of Delegates;
 - g. receive a secret ballot to vote for ANA and MNA delegates via mail or secure electronic communications;
 - h. submit proposals for consideration by MNA;
 - i. submit the names of nominees for MNA elective and appointed positions in accordance with provisions in these bylaws;
 - j. a hearing using due process before any disciplinary action is taken;
 - k. Other rights as provided under common parliamentary and statutory laws.
 2. Require that all members abide by the Code of Ethics for Nurses.

Section 4: DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

- A. All MNA members shall be subject to censure or expulsion by the association for violation of the Code of Ethics for Nurses as established by ANA and endorsed by MNA or for violation of MNA or ANA bylaws. No such action shall be taken against a member until such member shall have been served with written specific charges, given a reasonable time to prepare a defense and offered an opportunity for a full MNA fair hearing. The member may appeal any disciplinary action of MNA in accordance with procedures adopted by the MNA Board of Directors. Expulsion from a DNA shall result in expulsion from MNA upon certification thereof by the DNA to MNA. The member may, within 90 days after notification of the DNA action, request the MNA Board to review any question of law or procedure involved therein.
- B. Expulsion of MNA members from a constituent association (DNA or OA) shall result in expulsion from MNA upon certification thereof by the constituent to MNA. The member may, within 90 days after notification of the constituent action, request the MNA Board to review any question of law or procedure involved therein. MNA members expelled under provisions of this section by a constituent association, who are subsequently reinstated by the constituent, shall be automatically reinstated by MNA.

- C. MNA/ANA and MNA only members shall be subject to censure or expulsion by a two-thirds vote of the MNA Board of Directors for violation of the Code of Ethics for Nurses as established by ANA, or for violation of these bylaws. No such action shall be taken against a direct member until such member shall have been served with written specific charges, given a reasonable time to prepare any defense, and given a full and fair hearing. MNA/ANA and MNA only members expelled under provisions of this section shall be eligible for reinstatement upon application approved by a two-thirds vote of the Board.
- D. Membership shall provide for the recognition of disciplinary action taken against any member.
- E. Disciplinary action taken by another constituent MNA or ANA member against one of its individual members shall be given full recognition and enforcement provided that such action was taken in accordance with the disciplining constituent member's bylaws and disciplinary procedures.

Article III: DUES

Section 1: DUES

- A. The House of Delegates shall establish the amount of dues for MNA members. The Board of Directors shall establish the amount of dues for constituent association members. Membership rights shall be forfeited upon failure to pay dues as required.
- B. MNA and DNA dues will be paid to MNA, and MNA will send each DNA the dues for the district membership.
- C. MNA is obligated to pay dues to ANA in accordance with the policies adopted by the ANA Membership Assembly. The ANA assessment fee will be based on the accepted contractual agreement with MNA. The Board shall have the authority to reassess and adjust MNA annual member dues owed by MNA/ANA members to MNA, as needed, due to fluctuations in ANA assessment fees and/or dues structures.
- D. Members who qualify for one of the following categories may elect to pay 50% of the annual dues for MNA and DNA:

2. make reports or presentations to the House of Delegates within its area of expertise, including the presentation of action reports;
3. submit the names of qualified registered nurse members as nominees for appointment to serve on committees, task forces, ad hoc groups, and as MNA representatives to external groups;
4. a liaison representing the body of organizational affiliates who shall be a RN DNA or direct member and shall have voice but no vote at the open sessions of the Board of Directors meeting.

Section 4: DISQUALIFICATION/REINSTATEMENT

A constituent association, either DNA or OA, which fails to comply with the requirements stated in these bylaws, or for other cause deemed sufficient, may be disqualified as a constituent association of MNA by a two-thirds vote of the Board, provided due notice has been given. Such constituent and its members must be notified at least 3 months before the vote is taken, and the constituent shall have the opportunity for a hearing with the Board within said 3 months period. Reinstatement requires a two-thirds vote of the Board.

ARTICLE X: ADVISORY COUNCIL

Section 1: COMPOSITION

There shall be an Advisory Council composed of the presidents, or alternates of DNAs and the liaisons of OAs.

Section 2: PURPOSE

The Council shall consider and take positions on issues affecting MNA and its constituent associations.

Section 3: OFFICERS

There shall be a chairperson, a vice chairperson, and a secretary of the council to be elected annually by members in attendance and voting at the meeting held during MNA convention.

Section 4: MEETINGS

- A. Meetings of the Advisory Council may be held at such times and places as shall be determined by its membership.
- B. Meetings may be called upon the request of at least one officer and four members.

Section 5: QUORUM

One-third of the members of the Council, or appointed alternates, shall constitute a quorum.

Section 6: ACCOUNTABILITY

As approved by HOD on Wednesday, October 23, 2024

The council shall be accountable to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XI: OFFICIAL PUBLICATION

Section 1: DEFINITION

- A. The Mississippi RN and the MNA Members Only shall be the official publications of this association and shall be provided to each member of MNA.
- B. The American Nurse is the official publication of ANA, and shall be provided to each member of ANA, and the American Journal of Nursing (AJN) is the professional journal of ANA.

ARTICLE XII: NATIONAL MEETINGS OF ANA

Section 1: ANA MEMBERSHIP ASSEMBLY

MNA is entitled to be represented at the ANA Membership Assembly by delegates elected by secret ballot by members of MNA, ANA, and a DNA as provided in MNA and ANA Bylaws. A ballot may be via mail or secure electronic communications.

Section 2: MNA DELEGATES TO ANA

- A. Elections
 - 1. MNA shall be entitled to the two delegates as provided in ANA bylaws.
 - 2. The President of MNA shall serve as one delegate to the ANA Membership Assembly.
 - 3. The other delegate shall be elected from the membership.
- B. Qualifications: To be eligible to serve as a delegate, a member shall be required to hold membership in ANA and MNA and a DNA.
- C. Terms of Office: Each delegate and alternate shall be elected for a 2-year term or until a successor is elected. Delegates are limited to four consecutive 2-year terms.
- D. Vacancies: Vacancies shall be filled with alternates elected by ballot by members of MNA.

Section 3: OTHER ANA MEETINGS

MNA shall be entitled to representatives at meetings of ANA committees, boards, councils, work groups, and professional issue panels as determined by the ANA Board of Directors in accordance with ANA Bylaws. These MNA representatives shall be appointed by the MNA Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XIII: NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1: NOMINATIONS

- A. There shall be a Committee on Nominations consisting of five members, three members who shall be elected as provided for in these bylaws, and two members appointed by the

As approved by HOD on Wednesday, October 23, 2024

Board of Directors. The member receiving the highest number of votes in the election will be the chairperson.

- B. Six months prior to convention the Committee on Nominations shall request names of candidates for elective offices of MNA from association structural units and DNAs.
- C. Three months prior to convention, the DNAs shall submit to the Committee on Nominations a list of names of members for consideration in developing the ballot. Such lists are to consist of at least one name for each office to be filled.
- D. Two months prior to convention, the Committee on Nominations shall be called by the chairperson to prepare a ballot consisting of at least two or more nominees for each office to be filled. In preparing the ballot, the committee shall give consideration to the list of names submitted by the DNAs and other members.
 - 1. The ballot shall be representative, insofar as possible, of areas of nursing practice and the various geographical areas of the state.
 - 2. Nominees for the Committee on Nominations shall be selected so elections will not result in more than one member being elected from any one DNA.
- E. Nominees selected by the Committee on Nominations shall have consented to serve if elected and shall have met established qualifications.
- F. Members shall be eligible to serve in only one elective office in MNA at any one time, excluding serving as a delegate to ANA.
- G. A copy of the ballot shall be published at least one month in advance of elections.
- H. The House of Delegates and the respective voting body of a structural unit may make additional nominations from the floor at the MNA annual meeting.
- I. An elected officer may be nominated for another office, but must resign present position if elected to the new position.

Section 2: ELECTIONS

- A. Elections shall be held in conjunction with meetings of the House of Delegates. A Committee on Credentials at each annual meeting shall accredit delegates and verify eligibility of all voters.
- B. Officers
 - 1. The secretary, vice president, and directors of the Councils on Nursing Research, Health Affairs, Nursing Practice, and Advanced Practice shall be elected at each even-year convention.
 - 2. The president, treasurer, directors of the Council on Nursing Education, Council on Organizational Affairs, and three members of the Committee on Nominations shall be elected at each odd-year convention.
 - 3. Delegates to serve as representatives of MNA to the ANA Membership Assembly shall be elected in odd years prior to ANA Convention.
 - 4. All elected officials shall serve for 2 years or until their successors are elected unless otherwise provided for in these bylaws.
- C. The Board shall determine dates and hours of voting. Election shall be carried out by delegates voting in person by secret ballot or by mail or electronic ballot, with appropriate notice and procedures to protect the integrity and validity of the vote. Delegates may vote for other eligible members or associates of the association who have consented to serve if elected, but not appearing on the ballot.

ARTICLE XIV: AMENDMENTS

Section 1: AMENDMENTS WITH NOTICE

- A. These bylaws may be amended with notice at any annual or special meeting of the House of Delegates by a two-thirds vote of the members of the voting body present and voting.
- B. All proposed amendments shall be in the possession of the secretary of MNA at least 2 months prior to the date of the annual meeting, or 10 days prior to the date of the special meeting, and shall be appended to the call for the meeting.

Section 2: AMENDMENTS WITHOUT NOTICE

These bylaws may be amended without previous notice at any annual or special meeting of the House of Delegates by a 99% percent vote of the members of the voting body present and voting.

ARTICLE XV: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The parliamentary authority for all meetings of the association's convention, House of Delegates, and Board of Directors shall be the current edition of Robert Rules of Order Newly Revised.
